- 31 43 53 136 248 "Ride Along"
Buck and Aikman in the catbird’s seat for Super Bowl LIV

It’s their biggest broadcast of the year, one that will put more ears and eyeballs on them than perhaps with any other TV show this year.

Joe Buck and Troy Aikman, who have done five Super Bowls together, try to treat it like another day at the office but they know that butterflies are inevitable.

“I think anybody who would tell you that doing a game for 115 million people doesn’t get their nerves bouncing around a little bit is lying to you,” Buck says. “And as much as I say you don’t try and think about how many people are out there watching and in essence picking you apart, you do think about it. It’s just impossible not to, but that’s good. I think it forces you to really concentrate.”

Sunday, Feb. 2, the two men will be on the call when the Kansas City Chiefs and San Francisco 49ers meet with a Vince Lombardi Trophy on the line in Super Bowl LIV, which Fox will air live from Hard Rock Stadium in Miami Gardens, Fla. Jennifer Lopez and Shakira will perform on the halftime show with the singer of the National Anthem still to be determined at this writing.

Hard Rock Stadium – home to the Miami Dolphins and Miami Hurricanes football teams – has hosted five previous NFL title games and is a venue with which Buck and Aikman are well familiar. From a broadcaster’s standpoint both men say the stadium, which was renovated in 2015, is good, with ample facilities near their booth and good sightlines to every part of the field.

“You don’t have to watch the entire game off the monitor,” Buck explains, “You can actually watch the live action and see enough where the angles are good where you can determine where a guy goes out of bounds. You know, some of these places are low ... so the far sideline in each corner is really hard to see like where a guy goes out of bounds or if he was able to dip into the end zone. And you almost have to wait, otherwise you’re just guessing and it would be the worst thing in the world to guess wrong in the Super Bowl.”

Some stadiums are not so good. For instance, the booth at TIAA Bank Field in Jacksonville, Fla., which hosted Super Bowl XXXIX in 2005, was high up and made life difficult for Buck, Aikman and their boothmate that year Cris Collinsworth. In fact, Aikman remembers that Collinsworth was so unsettled by his compromised vantage point that he took a somewhat extreme measure to ensure that he could accurately relay the action.

“He didn’t feel like he could see the field, didn’t feel like he could see numbers and all that kind of stuff,” Aikman recalls with a laugh. “So he went and got an eye exam Saturday night and went to Lens Crafters and had glasses for the game on Sunday. He had never worn glasses in a broadcast and he was wearing glasses in the booth for the Super Bowl.”

Joe Buck (left) and Troy Aikman call the action for Super Bowl LIV, airing Sunday on Fox.

“Breeders” (FX — series premiere, March 2)
Paul (Martin Freeman) and Ally (Daisy Haggard) juggle full-time careers, aging parents, a mortgage and the unenviable curve balls of parenting their young children in this 10-episode comedy series. When Ally’s estranged father (Michael McKean) appears on their doorstep, the family essentially takes on a third child. Paul’s parents (Joanna Bacon, Alun Armstrong) are available to help out, but their approach to life stems from a different generation.

“Dave” (FX — premiere, M)
Based on the life of rapper and comedian Lil Dicky (also known as Dave Burd) comes this comedy series about a man, now in his late 20s, who thinks he’s destined to be one of the best-known rappers of all time. If he can convince his friends of this path, he’s sure he can conquer the world. Kevin Hart serves an executive producer.

“Devs” (Hulu — series premiere, March 5)
Suspecting foul play after her boyfriend’s apparent suicide, a young software engineer for a cutting-edge tech company begins an investigation that uncovers a technology-based conspiracy that could change the world. Sonoya Mizuno (“Maniac”), Nick Offerman and Alison Pill star in this Hulu/FX-produced thriller.

SUDOKU

To complete this puzzle, place the numbers 1-9 in the empty cells, so that every row, column and 3-by-3 box (in bold outline) contains all nine digits.

Each number 1-9 may appear only once in each row, column and 3-by-3 box.

Gordon Ramsay’s 24 Hours to Hell and Back

“Seafarer’s Family Restaurant” is the struggling Manassas, Va., seafood eatery that gets the focus of Chef Ramsay and his crew in this new episode. At first glance, the business’s prime location would seem to ensure dinner traffic, but instead, the family running the place is being torn apart by the strain of supporting three households on declining revenue. The Ramsay team gives the restaurant a striking makeover, a fresh new catering menu, and renewed hope for the future.

CBS News:
State of the Union 2020

Most of the broadcast and all of the major cable news networks present coverage of President Donald Trump’s annual address to a joint session of Congress, in which he’ll offer his assessment of what’s currently working in the country and his case for his re-election in November. The Democratic Party's response immediately follows on most of these channels.

XFL Football

- Jamie-Lynn Sigler ("The Sopranos") stars in this 2020 thriller as Karen, a happily married wife and mom, who looks forward to her family making a fresh start as they move to Washington for her husband's new job. Things start promisingly, too, as Karen becomes fast friends with Lisa (Jenn Lyon), their charming new neighbor. It takes Karen a while to realize that Lisa is a twisted piece of work who frequently lies to Karen and, worse, lies about Karen to other people. Alison Wandzura and Hannah Zirke also star.

First Time Flippers

A couple from Franklin, Tenn., who want to get into the house-flipping game realize they have to capture the attention of fast-moving prospects, especially when it comes to turning a profit. They quickly discover that flipping 200 miles from home has its drawbacks, especially when it comes to finding a buyer. In the new episode "Road Trip to Flip..."
Your car matters to me.
I take the time to see what your car really means to you and give it the protection it deserves. It's why I'm here.
